SAVE THE DATES!

The countdown begins! Mark these important dates in your calendar. Start preparing your entries and get ready to showcase your latest innovations to the European digital printing community.

THE EDP CLUB

A new chapter for the EDP Club. Building on nearly 20 years of recognising technical excellence, the EDP Club opens the door to a wider network of European trade publications in digital printing, publishing and converting. With a more open and flexible model, the Club empowers publications to help promote the EDP Awards, connect manufacturers with industry audiences, and bring outstanding technological innovations to the forefront.
